Burlington Police Department
Qualifications/Basic Job Requirements

It is the policy of the Burlington Police Department to afford equal employment opportunities to all qualified persons without regard to race color, religion, national origin, sex, age, or physical handicaps except where are or physical requirements are essential occupational qualifications. These qualifications include, but are not limited to, the following:

Character/Background Traits
We are seeking service and community oriented individuals with excellent communication and problem solving skills. Successful applicants will have character traits and values consistent with the Law Enforcement code of Ethics and the Mission, Vision, and Values of the Burlington Police Department.

Age
Must be 21 by date of hire.

Vision
Corrected to 20/20 in each eye.

Education
High School diploma or equivalent required. Associates Degree or higher, Honorable Military Service or equivalent Law Enforcement work history preferred.

Criminal Record
No domestic violence or assault convictions. No felony or serious misdemeanor convictions. No habitual or serious traffic offenses. Other violations, which may adversely affect a law enforcement career, will be considered on a case-by-case basis.

Illegal Drug Use
Applicants must be drug free - any previous drug use will be reviewed on a case-by-case basis.

Citizenship
Can be a non U.S. citizen but have to already have a permanent residence or work authorization card/green card.

Hiring Process
Written aptitude exam, physical standards tests, psychological exam, interview panel, polygraph, extensive background investigation, and medical examination, to include drug screening test.

Physical Condition
The Burlington Police Department requires its police applicants to pass the Vermont Police Academy's physical fitness standards at the graduation requirement level. This standard is the 50th percentile of the Cooper Institute physical fitness standards as adopted by the Vermont Criminal Justice Training Council.

Applicants must continue to work out and stay in shape even after this initial testing. If an applicant is successful in getting hired by the Burlington Police Department they will still be required to take a second physical fitness test mandated by the VCJTC just prior to the academy start date. Applicants who are unable to pass this mandatory retest will not be allowed to attend the police academy and may be released from employment.
